Acknowledged as the journal of record in its field, American Furniture presents new research on furniture design, use, production, and appreciation. Begun in 1993, this award-winning annual provides a comprehensive forum on furniture history, technology, connoisseurship, and conservation by the foremost scholars in the field. It is the only interdisciplinary journal devoted exclusively to furniture made or used in the Americas from the seventeenth century to the present.

“Collectors and students of American furniture look forward annually to the publication of American Furniture, the journal of record for the field, launched in 1993. Each one is filled with articles on furniture history, connoisseurship, and conservation and with book reviews about American furniture from the 17th through the 20th centuries. A bibliography of recent writing in the field, compiled by Gerald W.R. Ward, is always appended. The entire 2015 volume is devoted to Pennsylvania furniture.” —Lita Solis-Cohen, Maine Antique Digest
