before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Carried Away: All About Bags (Hardback) - Common:

The bag is one of the most universal and oldest objects invented by humankind. What began as a prosaic item for everyday use can now be a luxurious treasure that confers instant status. In this unique, lavishly illustrated volume, published to accompany the exhibition Le Cas du Sac, noted fashion historian Farid Chenoune and 24 expert authors present an unimaginable wealth of bags made for everyon...
